

Data sheet IcoCorner

Application:

The IcoCorners are specially designed for improving the airtightness in exposed corners. The IcoCorner portfolio consists of an internal and external corner piece preformed into the appropriate shape for easy and fast installation.

Product data
Valid from	01.01.2011
Dimensions, in mm	Internal piece : 100 x 100 x 160 mm External piece: 185.5 x 80 x 100 mm The material thickness of the pieces is minimum 0,2 mm
Colour	Black
Composition	Age resistant LDPE with carbon black.
Fitting	The corners are taped on all edges and tightly secured in the desired position. Afterwards the VCL or ALB can be installed according to the national guidelines with an overlap onto the corner piece. Temperature durability in the range of - 30 to + 90°C

Product advantages:

- Easy, fast and simple installation
- No need for any special tools for installation
- Ensures, when installed correctly, that corners are made airtight.